Headline:
Dry with sunny spells.

Today:
A bright and dry day with sunny spells, the best of these this afternoon although the sunshine will be rather hazy at times. Feeling warm away from the east coast with a mainly light southerly or southeasterly breeze. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry with some late sunny then clear spells. Although not quite as cold as recent nights, with light winds, a local frost is likely and perhaps patchy low cloud. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Sunday:
Mainly dry with, especially in the east, sunny spells. Cloudier at times for Moray and western Aberdeenshire with a few spots of rain possible. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Dry Monday with sunny spells developing. Cloudier at times through Tuesday and Wednesday with showers or longer spells of rain but turning cooler again as a strengthening northwesterly breeze develops.
